Guide to Current Official Statistics

THIS work is an expert survey of, and Guide to, all the statistics published by the Government.

The main portion, to which the work owes its unique value and importance, consists of an alphabetical subject index which not only refers the inquirer to all the current official publications containing statistics bearing on his subject, but in addition indicates their nature and mode of analysis and the time and place to which they relate.

The 1932 Volume now on Sale.

NOTES

1. THIS Index contains references to all Army Orders issued during 1933, together with those issued prior to 1933 which are still operative or are of historical importance.

2. Army Orders issued during 1933 and cancelled during that year are shown in italics.

3. Amendments to the more important books of regulations, &c., notified in Army Orders are shown in the order of the paragraphs or sections, &c., of the books which they amend. Where books of regulations, &c., have been revised or reprinted with amendments, only those amendments made subsequent to the revision or reprint of the book are shown, except that amendments made to the original book during 1933, prior to the revision or reprint, are shown in italics.

4. Any suggestions for the improvement of the Index and any errors that may be discovered should be notified to the Under-Secretary of State (C. 3), The War Office, London, S.W.1.

A.O. 26 1933

1. It has been decided to modify the conditions governing the rates of pay issuable to soldiers enlisted prior to 26th October, 1925, who, at the date of the expiry of the engagement on which they were serving on 1st October, 1931 (including any further period for which they had agreed to serve under the provisions of the footnote † on page 229, Pay Warrant, 1931) would cease to be eligible for pay at the rates laid down for soldiers enlisted prior to 26th October, 1925, and would on entering upon a further period of service, receive pay at the rates applicable to soldiers enlisted on or after 26th October, 1925.

2. Soldiers enlisted prior to 26th October, 1925, will be allowed, at the date on which the engagement referred to in paragraph 1 expires, to retain, subject to the usual conditions, the rate of pay of which they are then in receipt until they become eligible by promotion, increment, or increased skill at their trade to receive a rate of pay under the scales laid down for soldiers enlisted on or after 26th October, 1925, higher than the rate of pay of which they were in receipt on the date of such promotion, increment or higher trade classification.

The term "promotion" in this paragraph will include acting and temporary promotion and appointments to lance-serjeant or lance-corporal.

In any case where promotion, increment or increased skill in a trade would not involve a soldier's coming on to a higher rate under the 1925 scales of pay than that which he then draws he may continue on his existing rate until such time as he becomes eligible for a higher rate under the 1925 scale, but a soldier so situated will not be allowed to draw in respect of promotion, increment or higher trade classification any increased rate of pay on the scale applicable to soldiers enlisted prior to 26th October, 1925.

On the other hand, a soldier in receipt of pay on the scale applicable to soldiers enlisted prior to 26th October, 1925, and reverting to a lower rank or class, e.g. a warrant officer or non-commissioned officer reverting to a lower rank, or a tradesman disrated from Class I to II will draw the rate of pay for which he is eligible under the scale applicable to soldiers enlisted prior to 26th October, 1925, and not the rate under paragraph 2, first sub-paragraph of this Army Order.

3. This decision will be retrospective for all soldiers enlisted prior to 26th October, 1925, who have already entered upon a new engagement and are in consequence drawing the rate of pay applicable to soldiers enlisted on or after 26th October, 1925.

4. The rates of pay of the Territorial Army or Supplementary Reserve will remain subject to the existing provisions embodied in the appropriate Army Orders and Instructions.

5. After a soldier has entered on the rates of pay applicable to men enlisted on or after 26th October, 1925, in consequence of promotion, increment, or higher trade qualification, he will in no circumstances be allowed to revert to the rate of pay referred to in paragraph 2.

Combination of Trades in the Royal Engineers
GEORGE R.I.

43 Engineers 652	WHEREAS WE deem it expedient to combine the trades of Surveyor (cadastral and engineering) and Surveyor (railway) in Our Royal Engineers as a single trade under the designation of Surveyor (engineering) ;	A.O. 114 1933

OUR WILL AND PLEASURE IS that with effect from 1st August, 1933, the amendments shown in the Schedule attached to this Our Warrant shall be made to Our Warrant for the Pay, Appointment, Promotion and non-Effective Pay of Our Army dated 12th February, 1931 ;

IT IS OUR FURTHER WILL AND PLEASURE that soldiers who enlist or re-enlist into Our Royal Engineers after 31st July, 1933, shall be ineligible for classification in the trades of Surveyor (cadastral and engineering) and Surveyor (railway) ;

LASTLY IT IS OUR WILL AND PLEASURE that soldiers who on 31st July, 1933, are already mustered in these trades shall remain eligible for the rates of pay appropriate to the class for which they are qualified on that date, but that to be eligible for the pay of any higher classification they will be required to qualify as Surveyors (engineering).

Given at Our Court at St. James's, this 28th day of July, 1933, in the 24th year of Our Reign.

By His Majesty's Command,

HAILSHAM.

(Copies of this Warrant, including the Schedule containing Amendments No. 63 to the Pay Warrant, 1931, will shortly be issued to all concerned under authority of this Army Order.)

Within a laurel wreath upon a pedestal inscribed "Egypt" a Sphinx.

A.O. 171 1933	Courses for Officers of the Royal Corps of Signals at Cambridge University.—1. A two-year course at Cambridge University for selected officers of the Royal Corps of Signals will begin each year in October.	43 Signals
	2. They will attend the Long Vacation term at the end of their first and second years at the University, and will not be detailed for duty for manœuvres or training during the period of this term, i.e. , they will only be detailed for duties of this description during September, should they be so required.	714
	3. The course is intended for officers who have a fair knowledge of mathematics and wireless. Selection will usually be limited to officers who have four years' service or less, but officers with more than four years will be considered, if specially recommended.

A.O. 171

4. Officers attending the course will take the Mechanical Sciences Tripos and will include "Electric Signalling" as one of the voluntary subjects for the Tripos.

5. As an alternative to the above named Tripos, an officer selected for the course may be permitted to take the Physics and Mathematics Tripos with special sanction from the War Office, if his qualifications are such that it would be to the benefit of the service that he should take this alternative.

6. Officers selected will be expected to pass the qualifying examination in mathematics in March prior to joining the University in October, in order that they may be in a position to work uninterruptedly for the Tripos while at the University.

Officers will be selected approximately a year prior to their joining the University in order to prepare themselves for the qualifying examination. For example, an officer selected in the autumn of 1932 will sit for the qualifying examination in March, 1933, and will join the University in October, 1933.

7. The qualifying examination in mathematics and mechanics consists of two papers, of which the mechanics paper is divided into two parts, statics and dynamics, and candidates are required to satisfy the examiners in mathematics, statics and dynamics.

The subjects are defined in the following schedules :—

(a) Mathematics

The paper will consist of simple questions, mainly numerical, directed to test the candidate's working knowledge of the following mathematical subjects, and his power of applying them to practical problems :—

Use of slide rules and graphs ; elementary algebra, including the use of the binomial theorem, the exponential theorem, and logarithms. Elementary trigonometry, including the solution of plane triangles. Representation of directed quantities by vectors. The rudiments of plane analytical geometry, including the simpler properties of conic sections, referred to rectangular axes, but excluding the general equation of the second degree. Use of the elements of the differential and integral calculus, elementary applications to plane curves, maxima and minima of simple functions of one variable, easy areas and volumes, expansions of simple functions.

(b) Mechanics

The paper will consist of simple questions, mainly numerical, illustrating the following :—

Units ; composition and resolution of forces, treated analytically and graphically ; conditions of equilibrium ; force diagrams ; friction. Graphic methods of representing motion, including varying acceleration. Force, momentum, work, energy, power ; conservation of momentum ; conservation of energy ; efficiency of machines ; uniform circular motion ; simple harmonic motion ; moment of inertia ; rotation and oscillation of solid bodies about a fixed axis.

8. Candidates are recommended to work up the subjects in conjunction with papers set at past examinations. These may be obtained from Messrs. Deighton and Bell, publishers, Cambridge.

9. Details of the Tripos examination will be found in the "Students Handbook" of the University.

10. Names will be called for in an Army Council Instruction.

11. Officers detailed for these courses will draw the pay and allowances of their rank, the allowances being drawn monthly from the Command Paymaster, Eastern Command, from whom the necessary forms and any information required can be obtained. The University fees, including the matriculation fee and the fees for the Long Vacation term, will be paid from Army funds, and will be claimed by the University authorities direct from the Command Paymaster, Eastern Command. College fees will be defrayed by the individual officers.

12. If necessary, officers can apply through the usual channels, for an advance of £30 prior to joining the University in order to defray the first term's expenses. This advance is repayable in 12 equal monthly instalments.

13. Officers of the R. Signals whilst at the University are held on the strength of the Signal Training Centre for administration and disciplinary purposes and are responsible for keeping the Commandant, S.T.C., notified of their movements. They will report themselves in writing to the Commandant, S.T.C., immediately on first arrival at the University.

At the same time the R.E. officer appointed to be in charge of the R.E. officers at the University will supervise the officers of R. Signals, who will report themselves to him on first arrival and at the beginning of each term. Official applications, etc., should be made by officers concerned to the Commandant, S.T.C., through the R.E. officer referred to above. A.O. 171

14. The fixed date for the completion of these courses is 20th August, and officers on finishing their course will be posted to a unit for duty from that date.

Officers who complete the course will not be granted the sanction of the Army Council to retire under the Pay Warrant, 1931, Article 529, while they have less than 15 years' service. They will not therefore be eligible to retire with gratuity under the Pay Warrant, 1931, Article 631.
